CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY

This is to certify that the actual cover was on the board of the Space station "Salyut-7" during the stay on the board of the Soviet-Indian Joint Space Team. The cover had already had a special cancellation /Moscow 07.06.79/ and was cancelled in space additionally by the Soviet members of the crew in order to honor the Soviet-Indian Flight. Inscription on the cover in Russian: "Cooperation in space USSR - India". 50 of such covers were cancelled and signed in space.

Cancellations:

1. Official special postal cancellation /07.06.79/. "Cooperation in space, Moscow International Post".
2. Official Indian postal cancellation "Space Mail" made on the 5th of April, 1984 during normal working hours on the orbit.

Signatures of cosmonauts:

Yu. Malyshev - USSR
G. Srekalov - USSR
L. Kizim - USSR
V. Soloviev - USSR
O. Atjgov - USSR

These covers were prepared at the request of "Intercosmos" as souvenirs for Soviet space delegation which was going to visit India after Joint Space Flight. They forgot to take these covers to India.
