»ART AT THE UNITED NATIONS» SERIES - F
 On 27 September 1973, the Government of Bulgaria presented a replica of a 13th century Bulgarian fresco which bearing the name Boyana Church was set in 1259.

NEW AND RENEWABLE SOURCES OF ENERGY
 A United Nations Conference on New and Renewable Sources of Energy was held in Geneva in 1981 for the purpose of promoting the development of sources of energy.
 Conservation is one way of making use of energy resources energy today, both in industrialized countries and countries that it is imperative that they should be developed and used to ensure that they are available to all.

10TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE UNITED NATIONS VOLUNTEERS PROGRAMME
 United Nations Volunteers (UNV), the first international corps under United Nations auspices, was established on 25 December 1970. During the first decade of its existence, UNV has made a professional standard of volunteerism available to many geographically distant specialists, such as engineers, public health specialists, teachers, urban planners, biologists, nurses, etc.

In 1981, six commemorative issues were printed in United States denominations. (The commemorative "flag" series is available in a separate folder.)

INALIENABLE RIGHTS OF THE PALESTINIAN PEOPLE
 Since 1947, various aspects of the question of Palestine have been before the General Assembly, which, in 1974, reaffirmed the rights of the Palestinian people. A programme of work by the Committee on the Exercise of the Inalienable Rights of the Palestinian People, designed to enable the Palestinian people to exercise their rights, has been repeatedly endorsed by the General Assembly.

INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF DISABLED PERSONS
 In proclaiming 1981 as the International Year of Disabled Persons, the United Nations General Assembly hopes to help disabled persons in their physical and psychological adjustment to enable them to make their full contribution to society. National and international efforts will be made to provide disabled persons with greater assistance, training, care and guidance, to make available opportunities for suitable work and to ensure their full integration in society.

»Fresko«

Am 27. September 1973 stiftete die bulgarische Regierung den Vereinten Nationen eine Kopie eines Freskos aus dem 13. Jahrhundert, das 1259 in der Kirche von Boyana, nahe bei Sofia, geschaffen wurde.
 Das Fresko zeigt einen Feudalherren, den Würdenträger Kaloyan und seine Gemahlin Desislava. Kaloyan war ein Vetter des Zaren Konstantin-Alex von Tirovo, dessen Porträt sich ebenfalls auf dem Wandgemälde in der Kirche befindet. Boyana besitzt einige der schönsten Fresken Europas, die je von Kirchenbaumeistern geschaffen wurden.
 Das blau-grün-goldene Fresko ist eine wunderschöne Reproduktion des Werkes eines Künstlers, der auf eine gewisse Art versuchte, den strengen byzantinischen Stil zu bewältigen, der zu jener Zeit für die kirchliche Kunst konventionell war.

Das Gemälde zeigt den Würdenträger Kaloyan in einem dunkelblauen Umhang, einem grünen Kleid, einem Diadem auf der Stirn und ein Modell der Kirche in seinen Händen haltend. Die schlanke Gestalt der Desislava ist mit einem grünen Turban und einem goldenen Umhang bekleidet. Sie trägt eine kleine Haube, und ihr ovales Gesicht erscheint in weiss-rosa Farben.
