The image shows a collection of Burundian postage stamps mounted on a light-colored album page. The stamps are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping. The themes of the stamps include:

- Independence 1.7.1962: Several stamps featuring King Ntare Rukundo in profile, wearing a white turban and a white cap. One stamp also features the Burundian flag.
- 25th Anniversary of the United Nations (1945-1970): A stamp featuring a portrait of Pope Paul VI and a map of Africa.
- Pope's First Visit to Africa: A stamp featuring a portrait of Pope Paul VI and a map of Africa.
- 1968 Mexico Olympics: Two stamps featuring athletes in action, one a runner and one a jumper.
- Other Themes: Some stamps feature religious scenes, such as the Resurrection, and others feature the Burundian flag.

The stamps are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping. The album page is bound in a dark green cover.
