A collection of 50 Angolan postage stamps is displayed on a white background. The stamps are arranged in several rows and columns. Many of the stamps feature the word 'ANGOLA' at the bottom. The designs are diverse, including:

- Historical figures: Several stamps depict men in traditional or historical attire, such as a man in a blue robe and a man in a red and white robe.
- Landscapes: Some stamps show natural scenes, like a landscape with a river and hills, and a view of a city with a large building.
- Animals: There are stamps featuring a rhinoceros, a gazelle, a bull, and an elephant.
- Cultural scenes: Some stamps depict people in traditional clothing, such as a woman in a blue and white dress and a man in a red and white robe.
- Religious figures: One stamp shows a religious figure, possibly a saint or a religious leader.
- Maps: Two stamps show maps of Angola, one with a red border and one with a green border.
- Flags: One stamp shows the flag of Angola.
- Monuments: One stamp shows a monument or a large building.
- Other: There are also stamps featuring a lion, a bird, and a person in a red and white robe.

The stamps vary in size and color, with some being larger and more detailed than others. The overall collection represents a wide range of Angolan culture, history, and nature.
