A collection of Sierra Leone postage stamps is shown. Two clear plastic bags are at the top, each containing several stamps. The bag on the left has a handwritten '38' and shows stamps with yellow flowers. The bag on the right shows stamps with red and yellow flowers. Below the bags, a larger group of stamps is spread out on a dark green textured surface. These stamps feature various floral designs: 'Climbing Lily' (red and yellow flowers on a blue background), 'Black-eyed Susan' (yellow flowers on a green background), and 'Bontecoea' (purple flowers on a green background). The stamps are in various denominations, including 2d, 4d, 6d, and 1d. The word 'SIERRA LEONE' is printed on each stamp.
