This image displays a large assortment of Bavarian postage stamps and postmarks, organized into several horizontal rows. The items include:

- Top Row: Five small, dark-colored stamps featuring a profile portrait, followed by a larger rectangular stamp.
- Second Row: Seven stamps with various denominations (50, 37, 40, 50, 60, 75, 85) and colors (orange, green, red, blue, purple).
- Third Row: Eight stamps, including some with the word "Freistaat Bayern" and others with "Bayerische Post".
- Fourth Row: Nine stamps, mostly in shades of green and orange, with some featuring the word "Freistaat".
- Fifth Row: Six stamps, including two with the denomination "15 Pf" and others with "20 Pf" and "60 Pf".
- Sixth Row: Seven rectangular stamps, many labeled "DIENSTMARKTE" or "SCHWARZE", with various designs and colors (red, black, blue).
- Seventh Row: Four circular postmarks with numbers like "17", "18", "19", and "20".
- Eighth Row: Six circular postmarks with numbers like "2", "3", "4", "5", "6", and "7".
- Ninth Row: Seven circular postmarks with numbers like "1", "2", "3", "4", "5", "6", and "7".
- Tenth Row: A series of circular postmarks, some with numbers like "1", "2", "3", "4", "5", "6", and "7".

The stamps feature various designs, including portraits, allegorical figures, and symbolic motifs. The postmarks are circular and contain numbers indicating the time of day.
