The image displays a collection of envelopes and postcards from the 1988 Winter Olympics in Calgary, Canada. The items are arranged in a stack, showing various stamps and hand-drawn illustrations.

- Stamps: Several stamps are visible, including a 25-cent stamp featuring a skier, a 10-cent stamp featuring a hockey team, and a 90-cent stamp featuring a hockey player. The stamps are cancelled with a circular postmark that reads "OLYMPISCHE WINTERSPIELE 1988 CALGARY-CANADA".
- Illustrations: The envelopes are decorated with hand-drawn illustrations of athletes in winter sports gear. One illustration shows a skier in a green and yellow suit, another shows a hockey player in a blue and yellow uniform, and a third shows a hockey team in blue and yellow uniforms.
- Text: The text "OLYMPISCHE WINTERSPIELE 1988 CALGARY-CANADA" is visible on several envelopes, indicating the event and location.
