The image displays a collection of German postage stamps and postal cancellations arranged on a dark album page. The stamps are organized into several rows and columns, with some overlapping. The themes of the stamps include:

- Top Row: Two stamps featuring the Röhling Bridge (145 and 143), followed by four stamps featuring pink and white flowers (100, 100, 45, 45).
- Second Row: A stamp featuring a red-roofed building (55), a stamp featuring a woman's profile (70), and a stamp featuring a man's profile (45).
- Third Row: Two stamps featuring lighthouses (45 and 55), and a stamp featuring a cat (55).
- Fourth Row: A stamp featuring a train (57), a stamp featuring a man in a coat (70), and a stamp featuring a train (55).
- Fifth Row: A stamp featuring a train (85), a stamp featuring a train (55), and a stamp featuring a train (55).
- Sixth Row: A stamp featuring a man (145), a stamp featuring a man (5057), and a stamp featuring a man (55).
- Seventh Row: A stamp featuring a man (55), a stamp featuring a man (55), and a stamp featuring a man (55).
- Eighth Row: A stamp featuring a man (55), a stamp featuring a man (55), and a stamp featuring a man (55).

Many of the stamps are cancelled with circular postmarks from various locations, including Berlin, Hamburg, Frankfurt, and Frankfurt. Some stamps are part of a series, such as the 'Für uns Kinder' (For our children) series featuring a cat.
