ÖSTERREICHISCHE
POST

PREMIER JOUR
FIRST DAY OF ISSUE

The beginning of the century saw the fortress being handed over to the British by the Spanish and in August 1704 it was captured by an Anglo-Dutch fleet commanded by Admiral Rooke. Within a few months Gibraltar underwent the first of the many sieges it would suffer in the next two centuries.

In 1729 King George II died because the war against the Ottoman Empire had been the last one, while the war against the British had been the last one. One of the most notable incidents of our nation's history took place in Gibraltar in 1782.
