 When we were talking some months since about Mr. Carver's affairs, I thought it was settled that one of your receiving the rest of Mr. Carver's estate in satisfaction of the interest on the $2500 which formerly belonged to Mr. Carver, but now is the property of Mr. McDonough, was also to take his part with the other, & pay us our interest, according to the terms of the deed of composition - I said to know how this was to be done, as this is now as your interest does belong to McDonough, & he is paying me for his share - You should also bear in mind that about this time after you, the premium on the policy for the insurance of Mr. Carver's life is payable -

Yours very truly
 John Carver

Dear Sir

Your brother in a letter which I rec^d from him yesterday informed me that he had desired you to attend for him at King'sford on Monday next, I am however obliged partly in consequence of Mr. Skelton's being obliged to go to London & partly in consequence of Mr. Carr Leigh's Engagements to post for the Meeting to Thursday the 30th. In lieu of which I will immediately inform your brother & shall expect the pleasure of meeting him or you on that day -

I remain Dear Sir

Your most obliged serv^t

Dear Sir/

We relied fully on your promise either to settle your account or to give us such security as we should be satisfied with in the last month - feeling not a little disappointed we must now call on you to do so without more delay

My dear Sir.

Baker. v. Gale.

I have given this case every con-sideration in my power since I received it from your clerk this morning, and, under all the circumstances of it, I cannot recommend you serving a declaration in Ejectment tomorrow - I fear it would be a hazardous experiment - I will give the case what further consideration I can and let you have it by Wednesday morning's mail at the latest, and accompany it by a declaration in Ejectment should I be of opinion that such will be the best course to pursue.

I am my dear Sir

yours very faithfully

John Tyrrell

My dear Sir

I admit that on some reasons to complain that the account which I promised has not been forwarded - and will by this Post write to Mr. Hanway & request him to send in said matter at once -

Believe me Sir

Yours truly

Dear Sir
I am sorry to say I am so situated at the latter end of this week, that I shall not be able to come until Monday 18th Mr Thomson is an old man & very infirm, I have not the least expectation of his being able to come to E — If Mr Thomson is not able to come, will it be of any use for Mr Luce to send over the Deeds to Mr King?
Mr Lydon is our family Attorney except the expense will be but little I must leave it to you, I shall write to Mr King on the subject I shall come as early as I can on Monday & bring the Deeds with me.
If Mr Luce coming will do, so let it be if you please
I am yours Respectfully

Dear Robert

The object of Mr. Frost in disposing of all his property by a deed of gift in his lifetime can be effected, and I should recommend a Trustee being appointed (one of the family will do) though that is not essential. The whole expense will not exceed six guineas duty included. I cannot answer the other part of the question as to debts, mortgages, &c. without making some inquiry of Mr. Frost as to the business. I shall be over to Colchester in a few days & shall have an opportunity of seeing him.

See aty Treve
It has declared and laid the damages at £200.

Yours truly
W. D. Robert

Sir,

Mr Stone intended to have called on you Tuesday next had he not received your letter - from ill health attending me since my confinement - and a severe cold we have met with, prevented me settling your Bill - on Tuesday you might expect to see us -

I am Sir,
