This image displays a collection of Bulgarian postage stamps, organized into two vertical columns. The stamps are primarily from the early 20th century, featuring various designs and denominations. The left column contains stamps with royal crests and the word "БЪЛГАРИЯ" (Bulgaria) at the top. The right column includes stamps depicting different scenes, such as a train, a car, and a building, also with "БЪЛГАРИЯ" at the top. The denominations range from 1 to 30 leva. Some stamps have handwritten numbers or markings, possibly indicating their value or origin. The background is a light-colored surface, likely a page from a stamp album.

A collection of 25 postage stamps from the Thrace and Macedonia region, arranged in two columns on a white background. The stamps feature various designs, including portraits of men, buildings, and symbols, with denominations ranging from 1 to 25. The word "THRACE" and "MACEDONIA" are visible on several stamps. The stamps are arranged in two columns: the left column contains 18 stamps and the right column contains 7 stamps. The stamps are of various colors and denominations, including 1, 2, 3, 5, 10, 15, and 25. Some stamps feature portraits of men, while others feature buildings or symbols. The word "THRACE" is visible on several stamps, and "MACEDONIA" is visible on others. The stamps are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some gaps between them. The background is a plain white surface.
